

GULF COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD

Monday, May 2, 2011, 6:00 P. M., E. T.

The Gulf County School Board met in a special workshop setting Monday, May 2, 2011, at 6:00 P. M., E. T., in the board room at 150 Middle School Road, Port St. Joe, FL. Superintendent Wilder and the following board members were present: Chairman John Wright, Vice Chairman Billy C. Quinn, Jr., George M. Cox, Danny Little and Linda Wood.

AGENDA: 4-Day School Week

Chairman John Wright opened the workshop and thanked everyone for their attendance. He assured the audience that the Board was very interested in what they had to say, and he encouraged them to participate and share their thoughts and concerns surrounding the possible changes to be implemented for school year 2011-2012.

The following people addressed the board on the agenda item: Ann Comforter, Derek Kurnitsky, Sam Cessna and Paula Pickett. Carla May reiterated her concerns with the school calendar and questioned the board why the district continues to start school so early in August.

Chairman Wright shared information he received while researching districts in other states who have implemented a 4-day model.

Chairman Wright announced that the board will hold a special board meeting Monday, May 9, at 6:00 P.M., E.T., to vote on the 4-Day School Week model and to approve the 2011-2012 school calendar.

Chairman Wright adjourned the meeting at 6:30 P. M.
